

Lap Band Operation

Lap Band Operation

The process for Lap Band surgery begins with a consultation to see if you are qualified for the procedure.

Once a perspective patient has been identified to be a go for the procedure, the surgery, which is performed under general anesthesia, will be conducted on an out-patient basis and the patient will likely finish up in 30 minutes to an hour.